Dear Hempstead Homeowner,

The Village of Hempstead and the Community Development Agency wants to help you save your home!

We understand the prospect of losing your home can be very scary and you may not know what to do. That is why we have prepared a list of HUD approved counseling agencies that can help you.

Enclosed are certified agencies by the State of New York for housing counseling and are there to help free of charge. They can evaluate your current housing and financial situation and work with you in order to find a resolution.

The services offered are always free, they have helped hundreds of Long Island residents in mortgage modifications, working directly with law firms and servicers, and there is no need to pay thousands of dollars to anyone.

Call today, as the next phone call you make can be the one to save your home.

Sincerely,

Don Ryan
Mayor
